

We've Gussied Up the Old Gal...

Rainbow's new Soaps & Scents Department

Here we go again... It seems like lately many of our boutiques have decided to "powder" their nose, and judging from the result of Rainbow's latest effort, what a difference that little "sprinkle" has made! Yes ladies, we are talking about the newly remodeled, sleek and clean Soaps & Scents department, which is now fashioning a gorgeous marbled pergo floor, new beautiful display tables, updated lighting and many more delicate touches throughout.

The shimmer is not just about the new look: new national, high-end bath and beauty lines are now featured in the remodeled department along with other ladies' favorites:

- Caswell Massey, America's oldest perfumer from Newport, Rhode Island to the shelves of our very own Soaps & Scents.
- Yankee Candle uses their scent expertise for a new, exciting body-care line.
- Burt's Bees, presenting its new "Wings of Love" all-natural cosmetic line.
- Camille Beckman and her famous creams and lotions.
- Crabtree & Evelyn trademark scents of goat milk, aloe, lavender in quality beyond compare.

The better-than-ever Soaps & Scents at Rainbow Gardens.... not to be missed!

Beyond the Rainbow

Susan Chen

Fuh, Soh, Lu - Lucky Bamboo

Lucky bamboo is the rage! Rainbow's latest arrival is a botanical blessing borrowed from Asia and brought to us by lucky lady and local entrepreneur Susan Chen.

In 1982, this brave woman fled a troubled life in Taiwan to pursue an American dream. With her four young sons and $350 in her pocket, Ms Chen arrived in Utah where she spent years working two jobs and raising a family on her own. Having successfully launched her children into prosperous lives, Ms. Chen "retired" from her years of restaurant service, and began importing Zhu Yae Ching, known to us as lucky bamboo, from her native Taiwan. She now carefully grows and nurtures thousands of the stalks in her home and sells her beautiful bamboo arrangements locally.

Lucky bamboo is an Asian traditional gift given to celebrate the New Year, a new home or business endeavor. The Bamboo stalks are patiently bent into fancy curls over the course of 2-3 years. The stalks can then be artfully combined with straight pieces and potted to create a living gift of luck. As the bamboo grows and prospers, so does the life of the recipient. Thus it's not surprising this symbolic wonder of nature has gained much favor in the U.S., especially considering the rising popularity of Feng Shui, the Chinese art of beneficial placement. Living Bamboo is swiftly sprouting as western culture's symbol of Fu, Soh and Lu, luck, longevity and wealth.

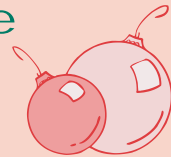

This adaptable indoor plant is resilient and easy to grow. It needs no soil or fertilizer and requires only water to thrive. Visit our Garden Greenhouse to see some of Susan Chen's creations, available in individual stalks, small pots and elaborate arrangements.

The Cook's Kitchen

Rainbow's Recipe of the Season Christmas Steak Sandwich

(Makes 4 delicious sandwiches)

- 4 fresh sandwich rolls split in half crosswise, warmed
- 1 white onion, thinly sliced
- 1/4 large green bell pepper, thinly sliced
- 1/2 large red bell pepper, thinly sliced
- 1 teaspoon minced garlic
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper

- 1/2 pound rib-eye steak, very thinly shaved or sliced
- 1/3 pound thinly sliced white American cheese

Heat a cast iron skillet or griddle over medium heat. When hot add the oil, onions and bell peppers, and cook, stirring, until caremelized, about 6 minutes. Add the garlic, salt, and pepper, and cook, stirring, for 30 seconds. Push off to 1 side of the griddle. Add the meat to the hot pan and cook, stirring and breaking up with the back of 2 metal spatulas, until almost no longer pink, about 2 minutes. Mix in the sauteed vegetables. Top with cheese slices and melt. Spoon the cheesy meat mixture into the warm buns and serve immediately.
